

The technical teams of Tamdeed Projects launch periodical patrolling campaigns to scanning the Fibre Optic Lines and prepare detailed report highlights any abnormality or potential risk, to conducting preventive and pro-active maintenance to the joint boxes and applying dummy test on redundant fibre which is necessary for critical networks, to starting regular passive maintenance intervention upon network failure notification and at a certain period where downtime is not important and to acquiring the appropriate authorizations and NOCs whenever a maintenance intervention is required.